

I

of

make oath and say as follows:—

(1) A marriage is proposed to be solemnised between me

(2) I believe that there is not any impediment by reason of kindred or alliance, or other lawful hindrance to the above marriage.

(3) I have for three weeks immediately preceding this date had my usual residence within the district of the British (Consul-General, Consul or Vice-Consul) at

(4) I am not under the age of 18 years [or I am under the age of 18 years, but the consent of the persons whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained] or I am under the age of 18 years, but there is no person whose consent to the marriage is required by law].

In this document the applicant swears that no impediment to marriage exists. The consular officer does not guarantee the contents of this affirmation. It does not confirm that the marriage will be recognised under foreign or UK law. If there are specific concerns relating to the validity of the proposed marriage then legal advice should be sought from a suitably trained lawyer. Nor does it confirm eligibility for entry clearance into the UK as the result of marriage to a British national.
